

ARTFUL LEADER FRAMEWORK

FRAMEWORK FOR THE KEY SERVANT LEADERSHIP COMPETENCES + KEY ART-BASED LEARNING APPROACH

ARTFUL LEADERSHIP is an international project, supported by the European Commission under the Erasmus+ programme, and aims to develop a new generation of servant leaders through arts.

Advancis (Portugal), the School of Arts - Catholic University of Porto (Portugal), the Rotterdam School of Management (Netherlands), ISTUD Business School (Italy), the University of Western Macedonia (Greece) and Storybag (Netherlands) are working to develop an innovative and creative set of digital learning resources & a new learning pathway with an arts based approach to inspire and nurture a new generation of Servant Leaders.

The purpose of this activity is to define the key skills to be developed and the learning approach that should guide the development of the digital resources, namely the base of knowledge, behaviours and attitudes that should be addressed. Complementary explanations under the Servant Leadership competences and the arts based learning approach are available in the ARTFUL LEADERSHIP – State of the Art Report.

The Servant Leadership model integrates six fundamental characteristics able to be developed and nurtured through arts based learning methods. The ARTFUL LEADERSHIP framework was designed to support your navigation on the Servant Leadership model. This framework proposes the application of the four arts based learning methods presented by Taylor & Ladkin (2009). From the connection between both areas – Servant Leadership characteristics and Arts based Learning methods; an ARTFUL LEADER can observe, reflect and interact with the evolving world.

At the same time, the ARTFUL LEADERSHIP framework intends to encourage curiosity, engagement, creativity and innovative thinking supported by the detailed research presented in our ARTFUL LEADERSHIP State of the Art.

The ARTFUL LEADERSHIP framework also acts as the base structure for the ARTFUL LEADERSHIP Tool Kit which will soon be available online.
